NEW YORK POLITICS

Bird S. Coler, borough president of Brooklyn, who ran against Odell for Governor of New York a few years ago and was beaten only by the narrowest of margins, believes that the Republican party is going to receive the worst beating in its history in New York state at the next election. A few evenings ago Mr. Coler opened the Brooklyn Pure Food Exhibition. In the course of his opening address he assailed men who seek to purchase legislators and predicted that Republican party in the State would be defeated by 500,000 votes next fall. Declaring that enormous fortunes are now piled up by fraud and deceit, he continued:

"It has become difficult, if not dangerous, to do the simplest bit of trading. If you buy a piece of real estate without engaging the service of an expert to keep you from being cheated, your friends are apt to look upon you as an idiot. If you make any contract of importance without hiring a lawyer to protect your interests the chances are ten to one that you will be cheated."

Mr. Coler simply voiced the general unrest of the country and the prevailing belief that the Republican party is responsible for the laxity of morals, public and private, throughout the nation. This sentiment is particularly strong in New York, represented in the Senate by Dewey and Platt, and the home of the insurance companies, whose directors gave their policy holders money to the Republican campaign fund.

Mr. Coler undoubtedly is an accurate observer and has read aright the signs which indicate that a political house cleaning is due in the Empire state.

Simon Peter Donnelly, "the sage of Lakeview" and Democratic National committeeman for Idaho, has annexed a platitude as a result of the sale of a mine long before he accumulated wealth. Mr. Donnelly was suggested as a fitting candidate for governor of Idaho. The possession of real money does not detract from his qualifications for the exalted station. Governor "Si" Donnelly would be a picturesque figure. But Idaho could go further and fare worse.

It is estimated that 5000 applications will be filed for agricultural and stock lands on Walker river Indian reservation when it is opened to settlement.

Dissolution of Partnership

The copartnership heretofore existing under the style and name of Petersen and Springmeyer, in the City of Carson, County of Ormsby, has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr.

Petersen having purchased the entire interest of C. H. Springmeyer. Mr. Petersen will pay all outstanding claims against said firm and will collect all claims due the firm.
